Where can I turn for peace?

The talks provided emphasize that true peace can be found through Jesus Christ and His gospel. Elder Jose L. Alonso teaches that in times of trial and hardship, we can find refuge and peace through the unwavering love of Jesus Christ and the blessings of His restored gospel. He invites us to come unto Christ, who offers rest and healing through His infinite Atonement ("Jesus Christ at the Center of Our Lives", Elder Jose L. Alonso). Elder Jeffrey R. Holland also speaks of the peace that Christ offers, which is different from what the world gives. He encourages us to apply the grace and healing balm of the Atonement of Jesus Christ to ourselves and our families, emphasizing that the peace Christ offers is available to us individually, even when it may be taken from the world generally ("Not as the World Giveth", Elder Jeffrey R. Holland). Both talks affirm that turning to Christ and embracing His teachings and Atonement can bring us the peace we seek.
